

Professional Development & Consultancy Services

Leadership Development

Orchard Training can design and deliver bespoke programmes to meet the learning and development needs of the individual organisation.

We can offer a range of courses from “First Steps in Leadership” for those new to leadership, through to “Effective Leadership” which supports experienced leaders to improve their skills and achieve more successful outcomes.

These courses have had a very real impact on community groups and organisations, demonstrating how learning and development is crucial to raising standards and improving effectiveness and efficiency.