

Professional Development & Consultancy Services

Motivational Preaching & Leadership

This is a bespoke training course for local preachers and worship leaders. It is an opportunity to develop your skills and realise your full potential to lead and motivate others.

The course empowers delegates through reflection and a range of leadership “tools”. It is very interactive and using practical techniques and effective tips explores communication, listening skills and ways to become more motivated and focused in ones personal and missional work.